

Laboratory Internship

Summary:

This temporary position supports winemaking and production by performing various analyses required in monitoring the winemaking process. The intern will assist the lab technicians and winemakers in various tasks.

The successful candidate may have knowledge of chemical techniques, will be computer literate, multifaceted, and work well under pressure in this fast-paced environment.

Location: Greenfield, CA

Seasonal Position: Begins June/July through November

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Perform daily juice brix and temperatures to monitor fermentations
- Perform daily grape maturity readings for harvest planning
- Perform all required analyses in accordance with established procedures
- Retrieve samples from the cellar
- Log samples and analysis onto appropriate analysis sheet
- Clean glassware, countertops, lab equipment regularly
- Calibrate instrumentation in good working condition
- Prepares reagents for use in lab analysis

Experience:

- Some College coursework in chemistry and microbiology

Qualifications:

- Willingness to learn
- Computer literate
- Strong math skills
- Ability to multitask and work in a fast-paced environment
- Ability to follow direction

Work Environment:

- May sit or stand for an extended period of time
- May lift up to 50 lbs.
- Work with chemicals that require protective equipment (goggles, etc.)
- Must comply with companywide BRC standards

Please email resume to Jonathan Massé at (831) 386-5064 or jonathan.masse@scheidfamilywines.com.