

KEN BROWN

Harvest Intern

Ken Brown Wines located in Buellton, California is seeking a harvest intern for the 2020 vintage, which will start in August and run through October.

Ken is one of the founders of the Santa Barbara county wine industry. The successful candidate will work alongside Ken in the vineyards, winery, laboratory, as well as the blending table. Being a boutique winery, our interns are involved in every aspect of wine production from grape to glass.

Pay is DOE, unexperienced candidates are considered – though some experience is preferred. Lab and forklift experience are beneficial.

Please send CVs and any inquiries to Ben@Kenbrownwines.com.

Cheers,

Ben Van Antwerp
