Thank you for your reapplying to California State University, Fresno. Our records indicate that you were placed on academic disqualification the last semester you attended Fresno State. All returning students who left the university in disqualification status are reviewed by the Readmission Committee. Before we can proceed with the processing of your application, you must submit the following materials:

Student Readmission Petition

Formal Petition Letter (no more than 2 typed pages)

1. Write 1 or 2 paragraphs briefly describing the problems and factors that led to your disqualification.
2. Important: Describe steps taken to resolve these problems. Provide information that indicates how you are now ready to be academically successful.

Submit official transcripts from all colleges and universities attended since your disqualification. In order to process your file, transcripts for schools that you're currently attending should show fall 2018 grades and spring 2019 courses in progress.

You will be notified regarding the committee's decision and conditions for your reinstatement or reasons for denial to your Fresno State e-mail.

You can check your admission status and any pending items that are due at <http://my.fresnostate.edu>.
