

ENGLISH EXEMPTION REQUEST

California State University, Fresno has received results from California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress (EAP) English exam, SAT or ACT test score for English. The results have placed the student as “Conditional Exempt”.

In order to clear the “Conditional Exempt” status the student must have completed a one-year course in English and earned a grade of “C” or better during the student’s senior year.

Part I: To be completed by student
Conditional status is based on:

- ACT Score 19 - 21
- SAT Score 510 - 540
- CAASP Score 3 - Conditional Ready

Senior Year Experience (SYE) Course Completed:

- Expository Reading and Writing Course (ERWC)
- Advanced Placement (AP) English Course
- International Baccalaureate (IB) English Course
- English course approved for extra honors credit by the University of California (indicated on the UC doorways “a-g” course list with a star)

Students not completing the senior year experience (SYE) English requirement must take an Early Start English course in the summer. Instructions on how to register for Early Start English are available at <http://www.fresnostate.edu/outreach/esp/registration.html>

Note: It is important you submit this form as soon as possible and before your Dog Days session to avoid any delays with your fall 2017 class registration.

I authorize release of my grades received in your class to California State University, Fresno.
