Nomination Form for the Paul DeRuosi Memorial Community Service Scholarship

Proudly sponsored by the Paul DeRuosi Memorial Community Service Scholarship in memory of Paul DeRuosi, who along with Marc and Marjorie Radin and Dr. John D. Welty shared a dedication for engaging students in service and making our region a better place to live.

Each year, the Paul DeRuosi Memorial Community Service Scholarship will provide a single $1,000 scholarship to an eligible student who exemplifies the commitment to service that Paul championed during his distinguished 31-year career at California State University, Fresno.

In reviewing nominations and selecting a recipient, committee members will use the following criteria.

- 1) Applicants must be a freshman or sophomore, currently enrolled and in good academic standing with the university.
- 2) Candidates should demonstrate a regular commitment to service over the last two or more years. Service efforts should show some consistency with respect to any or all of the following: type of service (ie. tutoring/mentoring/youth services, health services, poverty alleviation, etc.); agency where service was provided, outcome of service (ie. benefiting unemployed persons, or leading others to service) (2x weighted factor).
- 3) In order to qualify for the $1,000 scholarship that accompanies this award, the recipient must have completed a minimum of 150 hours of service over the previous 12 months (approximately November 2020-November 2021). They must also have completed an accredited course that recognizes this service, or take such a course within the next 12 months. This may include credit for the service from a service-learning course, Community Service 1 or 101, internship or any other relevant, credit bearing coursework. (The Richter Center can assist students in identifying appropriate courses that can be taken to fulfill this requirement.)

4) The service provided must meet significant need(s) in the community that goes above and beyond any standard internship, scholarship or degree requirements. (2x weighted factor).

5) Service to the Fresno State campus community will not be considered for this award.

Nominations may come from any person, including self-nominations. Nominations must clearly and concisely address the nomination criteria and questions. One nomination per student will be accepted. A selection committee will review nominations and determine the award recipient.

The deadline for nominations February 11, 2022. To apply, go to bit.ly/PDMCSS22
