

Mathematics Department, California State University, Fresno

Integration Bee - 2003 Results

On Wednesday evening, March 12, 2003, 18 Fresno State undergraduates competed in the first Annual Fresno State Integration Bee. After several rounds, the field was reduced to four semi-finalists. A few more rounds determined the third and fourth place finishers. A final sudden death integral determined the first and second place finishers.

